

Sapphawitthayakhom Wittayakhom School Announcement
Policy of not Accepting Gifts or Bribes. (No Gift Policy).
Fiscal Year B.E. 2567

Sapphawitthayakhom School is committed to managing the organization with good governance, to build faith and confidence in society that. As an administrator at Sapphawitthayakhom School, I would like to announce my intention to perform my duties to manage the work with awareness towards existing responsibilities.

I intend to perform my duties with honesty, integrity, transparency, and assure they are verifiable according to the guidelines for promoting morality. I will adhere to the school principles of good governance. Especially, of transparency in administration and its declaration as a school where all executives and personnel are principled.

I will not accept gifts or bribes of any kind while performing school duties. If done this will result in corruption and misconduct both now and in the future. I will stand firm against all forms of corruption, to create an atmosphere of honesty. Which aims at creating an ethical and transparent organizational culture. In addition, of building organizational integrity to be strong and sustainable.

Therefore, it is announced for everyone to know and abide by.

Announced on October 1, 2023

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'Kritsana Khruayoo', with a long, sweeping underline.

(Mr. Kritsana Khruayoo)

Director of Sapphawitthayakhom School